DETAILED ACTION

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1 – 21 are allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

With respect to claims 1, the prior art does not teach or render obvious the total combination as claimed including a crop mark setting device for setting a crop mark of the web strands that is related to the cross cutting, said crop mark setting device comprising a first deflecting means for deflecting a first web strand around a first deflection axis and a second deflecting means for deflecting a second web strand around a second deflecting axis and the crop mark setting device being arranged in front of the turning bar means with respect to a direction of delivery of the web.

With respect to claim 15, the prior art does not teach or render obvious the total combination as claimed including a process for setting the crop mark for and/or in a print production apparatus comprising setting a crop mark position of at least the second web strand using a crop mark setting device, the crop mark position being related to the cross cutting, the crop mark setting device including a first detector wrapped around by the second web strand before the turning and/or reversing of the second web strand by a movement of the second deflector changing a length of the path of the second web strand.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Art Unit: 2854
